Damage Waiver (DWC) is charged on all rental items. DWC is a standard rental fee common throughout the industry. DWC covers normal wear and tear consistent with normal use.

Damage Waiver (DWC) does NOT cover:

- a. Mold, burn holes, candle wax, or excessive soiling on linens
- b. Any items not returned (including crates, carts, and racks)
- c. Negligence
- d. Loss or damage to equipment caused by theft, vandalism, or mysterious disappearance, or malicious mischief
- e. Broken or chipped dishware or glassware
- f. Use or operation of equipment in a manner inconsistent with the manufacturer's instructions or contrary to the rental contract.
- g. Loss or damage to accessory equipment such as welding leads, electric cords, bits, batteries, hoses, tires, tubes, or harnesses, etc.
- h. Loss or damage due to flood, storm, earthquake, or other external factors.
- i. Loss or damage due to overloading or exceeding rated capacity, misuse, abuse, or improper servicing of the equipment.
- j. Seizure or destruction of the equipment by order of a government authority.
